They covered the 26 yards in three plays and Chandler again added the extra point to make it 14-6 at the half.

In the third quarter after an exchange of punts, Appomattox had the ball on their own 20. They covered the 80 yards in six plays with Wilson again scoring, this time from three yards out. He had a 73 yard in that drive that put them in scoring position. Chandler then added his third extra point with 6:30 in the third quarter and it was 21-6 in favor of Appomattox.

In the fourth quarter it was mostly Rustburg as they scored on a seven yard run by William Calahan with 9:35 left in the game. Garner then passed to Frazier for the two point conversion to make it 21-14.

Rustburg blocked a field goal attempt by Chandler after Appomattox drove to the Rustburg nine yard line. The blocked attempt was picked up and carried to Rustburg's own 31. Garner then started hitting end Frazier with short passes as time was running out. They got to the Appomattox nine yard line and Plicky Williams then intercepted a Garner pass on the five and bought it back to the 11 with 35 seconds left in the game as they ran out the clock for the win.

Steve Wilson was the running star for Appomattox as he gained 157 yards in 17 carries. He also hit five of seven passes for 60 yards. Welton Gafford was next with 67 yards rushing as Appomattox picked up 308 yards rushing and 60 passing for 368 total offense. Appomattox had 16 first downs to nine for Rustburg but was penalized 90 yards to 40 for Rustburg.

William Calohan was Rustburg's leading rusher with 50 yards while the other backs had minus yardage. Gary Garner completed 12 of 14 passes for 216 yards of which Bo Frazier had eight catches for 158 yards and Calohan had four catches for 58 yards.

Ray Tweedy had three catches from Wilson for Appomattox for 30 yards.

The Rustburg defense was led by Bo Frazier, Leon Haskins, Steve Lancaster, Tommy Burks and Doug DeJamette.

The Appomattox defense was a stone wall as Rustburg gained only 24 yards rushing. They were led by Steve Lawson, Billy Guthrie, Mark Weatherly, Danny Bryant, Plicky Williams, and Jimmy Chandler. Steve Almond also had two outstanding tackles as on two occasions he got in and got the Rustburg quarterback for 14 yard lost and Frazier for a 11 yard lost on a reverse.

Appomattox forced Rustburg to punt four times but could get no return much on them. Appomattox punted twice.

Dinner For ACHS Players

Steve Wilson, senior and co-captain and Clayton Cyrus, offensive tackle have been named players of the week at Appomattox County High School, result of a 27-8 victory over Nelson County Friday Oct. 2. Coach Jerry Robinson says that Steve played "one of the finest games of his career- certainly the finest game since I've been in Appomattox." He gets the free meal at Maude's and title "Back of the Week' for play calling, outside running and overall performance. He is a senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson. Clayton Cyrus, another letter man and a senior "did a fine job blocking on the line and his blocking down the field was particularly noticed by the people in the stands," said Coach Robinson. He is "lineman of the week." Team members performed so well that the choice was difficult says the coach.
